

Taylor Sewing Centre Quilt Shop

January 2018

SHOP NEWS

The first two weeks after the holidays have been very busy. All of us here at the store are working hard ordering and receiving new fabric and notions for your quilting projects. Paige Dickey, the new owner, is busy learning the ropes and Linda, Sylvia, and Maddie are working hard preparing beautiful quilt samples to inspire us. Paul and Donna Taylor are also easing their way into retirement, but don't worry about your machines, as Paul is going to stay on part time for repairs and tune-ups to keep them running!!!
